

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

IN RE: AT&T INC. CUSTOMER
DATA SECURITY BREACH
LITIGATION

Civil Action No. 3:24-cv-00757-E

MDL DOCKET NO. 3:24-md-03114-E

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING ABL ARBITRATION
CLAIMANTS' MOTION TO INTERVENE AND FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE PRELIMINARY APPROVAL ORDER

After considering the ABL Arbitration Claimants' Motion to Intervene and for Reconsideration of the Preliminary Approval Order, and supporting materials, and good cause appearing, this Court hereby:

1. Grants the ABL Arbitration Claimants' motion to intervene and for reconsideration;
2. Modifies the preliminary approval order (ECF No. 298) to exclude from the class definition natural persons and entities who filed or served on AT&T or its counsel a document purporting to be a written arbitration demand or arbitration petition related to the data breaches at issue in this matter as well as anyone who provided AT&T or its counsel with written notice of its intent to pursue arbitration against AT&T related to the data breach;
3. Modifies the preliminary approval order (ECF No. 298) to permit potential class members to use documents with electronic signatures, provide only names and two pieces of contact information, and opt-out in mass or groups via counsel;
4. Requires counsel for the proposed class (and, if necessary, AT&T, Inc.) to make all modifications to the class settlement agreement, notice program, and other elements of the order necessary to effectuate the foregoing changes; and

5. Lifts, terminates, and extinguishes effective immediately, the entirety of the preliminary approval order (ECF No. 298)'s injunction against arbitrations related to this matter.

DONE AND ORDERED this ____ day of July 2025.
